Rethinking Nature

Challenging Disciplinary Boundaries

Edited by Aurélie Choné, University of Strasbourg, France, Isabelle Hajek, University of Strasbourg, France and Philippe Hamman, University of Strasbourg, France

Series: Routledge Environmental Humanities

Contemporary ideas of nature were largely shaped by schools of thought from Western cultural history until the present day concerns with environmental change and biodiversity conservation. This textbook provides an overview of different ways of conceptualising nature in epistemological terms, reflecting the tensions between the polarities of humans as masters or protectors of nature, or as part of or outside of nature. Each chapter provides a concise overview of its topic which will serve as a concise introduction to students and reference source.
